Talebound Epiphets

- hands are bleeding, the moment Han'zo draws a weapon
- Han'zos shadow is shapeshifting constantly into shapes which looks eerily familiar to the people he killed
- everything he touches with blank hands starts to ignite

Story

Han'zo was born into a Mountain Village called Shukai. It was known for his master bladesmiths and Swordusers. At a certain age every member needed to pass some Trials called "Bansendo" - The tests of the blades. Who passes was taught into the Way of the Sword. All others found different things to do.

But for Han'zo was only one goal: Passing the trials, better as anyone before. He trained hard, but failed. His sister passed and mocked him and a rage not known to any folk befell him and he slaughtered the whole village. After his mind was cleared he set everything on fire, to erase his shameful doing and went on a Journey, finding his own "Bansendo".
